This 30 day return policy is only available for systems purchased from UroMatrix/ Pos-T-Vac and is only available to the registered system's original owner. The return policy does not apply to any subsequent system purchase or components.

Upon Authorization of return only the cost of the system will be refunded, not shipping and handling.

UroMatrix/Pos-T-Vac is able to provide the means for erection, but not patient motivation or a willing sex partner. Our company provides access to committed staff to insure that each and every patient has the opportunity of being successful with Vacuum Therapy Treatment.

The Erec-Tech™ method does not necessarily elevate man's libido, overcome a bad relationship, or restore lost youth. Erec-Tech™ is designed to allow a couple to control their sexual intimacy by providing a predictable and immediate method to create an erection for intercourse. There are also profound benefits of the Erec-Tech™ as a rehabilitation tool and to prevent non-use atrophy.

There is no warranty on moisture in the pump head. Some men dribble a small amount of urine when using a Vacuum Therapy System. If you have this problem, protect your pump by placing some cotton balls in the penile tube just below the pump. Be sure to change the cotton balls after each use.

We are always happy to discuss any problems that you may have with the use of the system. If you would like to order replacement parts, please call our toll free number 1-866-506-7107.

Our hours of operation are Monday–Friday, 9:00 am to 6:00 pm EST.
